

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Wednesday - 2 April 1969

Page 2

25X1 3. [] Talked to Dr. Dunn, Administrative Assistant to Senator Charles Goodell (R., N.Y.), about the possibility of one of our analysts discussing his trip to Biafra with him. Dunn said he would be happy to do so and it was agreed that I would arrange a mutually agreeable time with his Secretary, Judy Liffman.

25X1 25X1A 4. [] Talked to [] a former Agency employee who is retired on medical disability concerning his BEC claim. [] has, on several occasions, gone to Representative Joel Broyhill (R., Va.) concerning his claim and had received a copy of an Agency letter to Broyhill explaining the situation. [] was basically interested in the question as to where he goes from here in pursuing his claim, and I told him he would be well advised to stay in close touch with [] both of whom have worked with him in the past. [] said he would do this.

25X1A

25X1A

25X1A

25X1A

STATSPEC

25X1 5. [] Returned the call of Elizabeth Curlin, in the office of Senator J. W. Fulbright (D., Ark.), who wanted to know

[]

25X1 6. [] Met with Representative John M. Slack (D., W. Va.) and reviewed with him the Agency memorandum on "North Korean Violations of the Armistice," which was prepared in response to questions raised by Representative Slack during the Director's briefing of the Appropriations Committee on 13, 14, and 17 March. Representative Slack expressed his appreciation in following up on the request and after review, returned the memorandum for inclusion in the transcript which is being held by the Agency for the Committee.

Representative Slack expressed his personal concern over the ABM question and asked if the intelligence community has reliable information on the reasons why the Soviets did not complete the originally planned ABM installations around Moscow. He noted further his personal appreciation for the information and guidance provided by the Director's briefing of the Committee. Overall, it was a most friendly and cordial meeting and evidenced Representative Slack's personal regard for the Director and the Agency.

SECRET